

I oppose making the Washington Special Flight Rules permanent. Light aircraft do not present a serious terrorist risk because of their limited size and small fuel capacity..

When the government imposes yet more restrictions on freedom of flight, the terrorists win and honest citizens lose.

There is no hard evidence which indicates this proposal is necessary while the loss of utility of aircraft using the area is very real.

Robert Grace